ForexTradingCup

The monthly trading competition on real accounts

Trade your own account. Get ranked on verified returns.

Free entry. Read-only MT4 or MT5 connection. Every trader is ranked by percentage return, so a $500 account competes with a $50,000 account on equal terms.

$47,400 Prizes every month	$15,000 First place

How it works

1 Join

Pick a trader name and country. Your real name stays private.

2 Open a new account

A live MT4 or MT5 account with a partner broker, opened through our link. Your money stays with the broker, in your name.

3 Connect it, read-only

We read closed trades and the balance. We cannot place trades or move money.

4 Trade as usual

Every closed trade updates your % return on the live leaderboard. The top 10 win prizes.

Monthly prizes

1st	$15,000
2nd	Rolex Datejust
3rd	Dubai trip
4th to 10th	Up to $2,500 each

$47,400 in total, of which $32,500 in cash. Prizes are paid within 14 days of the final results; prizes of $1,000 or more need an identity check.

Why traders trust it

Results come from the broker. No screenshots and nothing self-reported.

One published rule. Return on starting balance, trades opened and closed in the window, at least 10 closed trades, deposits ignored.

Read-only, always. We can never trade or withdraw. Disconnect at any time.

Fair by design. New accounts only, one entry per person, audit log for every organiser action.

Free, and clear about why. Partner brokers pay us for new accounts opened through our link. That pays for the prizes and never affects rankings.

Trading leveraged products such as forex and CFDs carries a high risk of losing money and may not be suitable for everyone. Past performance does not predict future results. ForexTradingCup is a performance-tracking and competition platform; it is not a broker, does not hold client funds and does not give investment advice.
